“IT”

The city election of 1911 is history now.

The voters have registered their will and a slender majority of them have spoken for a change in the management of city affairs.

After four years of faithful, honest and efficient public service, the Democratic city administration has been voted out and the old Republican machine organization has been voted in.

Henry C. Searcy, twice elected mayor, has gone down to defeat and former County Auditor Fred N. Tynes has been chosen to rule in his stead, his plurality being unofficially 167 votes.

In the fight for vice mayor Dr. Young, Republican, was elected over Adam Pfau, Democrat, by 56.

Along with Mr. Tynes a Republican majority of the city council goes in also, the new council standing four Republicans and three Democrats. The successful Republicans are John Moeller, George Sheppard, George M. Osborn and George L. Gulker. The Democrats are Frank Schmank, William E. Cook and William Gergens.

Thus the executive and the legislative ends of the city government are turned over to the Republicans, and it is well that as long as they got one they should also have the other. There can be no division of responsibility now. What is done or not done is up to the Republicans. The new mayor, Mr. Tynes will have the appointment of the directors of public service and safety and through them of numerous minor department heads and employes. If is expected that a clean sweep will be made of the Democrats and it is being boasted by jubilant gangsters that by February first there will not be a Democrat on the city pay roll.

Out of the wreck of Tuesday's fight the Democrats have saved some splendid young men, William N. Gableman was re-elected city auditor by a plurality of 270 defeating Harry Gillen. For city solicitor Stanley McCall was elected by 83 plurality over Mark A. Crawford. These two young

AND NOW WHAT?

The pendulum has swung back; it always does.

After two straight almost clean sweeps of the city the Democracy meets with a decided reverse and to all practical political purposes loses entire control of the town.

And thereby was witnessed one of the most peculiar and surprising results ever turned out in an election.

The Democrats were absolutely confident of carrying the day, never a suspicion of approaching disaster clouded their optimism. On the other hand the Republicans were quite as sure they were going to get the licking they deserved.

Both were equally surprised, but their feelings over it are entirely different.

The Times sincerely regrets the result, not so much because of a partisan defeat as because it seems to be a set back to municipal progress and a rebuke to honest and efficient government.

For say what one will, in the heat and clash of a campaign, he must acknowledge that the administration has accomplished wonders for the betterment of Portsmouth and this was all done honestly and with rare economy. The officials certainly and the policy apparently have been discarded.

We do not mean by this, of course, to cast any reflection upon the personal honesty of the men chosen, Tuesday, nor deny they have good intent, with right to fair trial and this trial they must and will be given.

The incoming administration, may be slowly, but none the less surely for that, will make a thorough and clean up. That is not pleasant to contemplate from this side, nor as we view it from the standpoint of public welfare. In the entirety the present officials have been notably zealous and competent in the discharge of their duties and in the hour of their defeat their party is as proud of the notable service they have rendered as at any time and its regret is to lose them for the credit they have done it.

Let us all, however, as citizens receive the verdict in good spirit and look hopefully to the future. We must grant at least other reputable citizens will now govern the city and from them we will expect their best efforts to give a progressive and efficient government.

This much has all been gained in common: The contest has been the most decent and even tempered Portsmouth has enjoyed in many years and may we all appreciate that and remember we are neighbors, with like interests, and accord to each other sincerity and worthy purpose, till the contrary be shown.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Orlett

As a decided shock to relatives and friends was the sudden death of Mrs. Mary Orlett, aged 83, at her home on West Fifth street, early Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Orlett suffered a hemorrhage of the lungs about 6 o'clock and died in less than an hour. She complained of feeling ill when she awoke and summoned her daughter, Miss Barbara Orlett. She hastened to attend her, but seeing that she was growing rapidly worse she called the Franciscan nuns residing next door. They in turn called Rev. F. Gloeckner and he administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic church. The dying woman's son, J. J. Orlett, well known Market street grocer, reached the house just as she was breathing her last.

Mrs. Orlett, while she had been ailing for several years, had felt unusually well the past month. She attended mass at St. Mary's church Tuesday and ate a hearty supper Tuesday evening, retiring for the night in unusually good spirits.

Mrs. Orlett was one of the most respected German women of the city. She was born in Landverecht, Heckstadt, Bavaria, and came to this country in 1852 with her late brother, John Lang, and sister, Mrs. Joseph Vetter, who preceded her in death a month ago. Mrs. Orlett was the last surviving member of her family. Her husband, Jacob Orlett, died 32 years ago, and two years later she and family located in Portsmouth. Of eight children born to them, three are dead. Three of the daughters became nuns. Sister Anna Agnes died a few years ago. Sister Theresa Vincent is teaching school at Springfield, O., and Sister Louis Anthony is a teacher in a parochial school at Cumminsville, Cincinnati. Other surviving children are Jacob, of this city, Joseph Orlett of Pond Creek, and Miss Barbara at home.

The funeral will take place from St. Mary's church Friday morning, at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Huel's Funeral

The funeral of Mrs. Herman Huels occurred Wednesday morning, at St. Mary's church. The services were beautiful and impressive, and there were many lovely floral tributes. The pallbearers were L. C. Hurth, John W. Snyder, Adolph Glockner, Joseph Deckelman, Leo Sommer and John Vetter.

Death Message.

Fritz Miller, of West Front street, received a message from his daughter, Mrs. Walter Eylar, of Baltimore, Wednesday, telling of the death of her youngest child. The remains are expected to arrive here Thursday for burial.

W. S. Walker Funeral.

The remains of the late Wm. Walker were laid to rest in the Greenlawn Wednesday afternoon. The burial was delayed, pending the arrival of Paul Walker, a son who came from Ft. Sill, Oklahoma. Among the out-of-town relatives and friends who were present at the interment were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elder of Aurora, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Otho Bell of Pawnee Rock, Kan.; Mrs. D. A. Borah and son Eugene of Grinnell, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McKeown of Ironton; James Petry of Jasper, O.; Guy Norton of St. Louis, Mo.; H. H. Mechlin of Winchester, O.; A. P. Goldsmith of Radford, Va.; U. A. Swisshelm of Mound City, Ill.; Joseph Swisshelm of Peebles; W. B. Shober of Charleston, W. Va.; C. R. Comer and C. W. Kendle of Huntington, W. Va.; James B. Turk of Chicago, E. E. Ginn of Washington C. H. and Miss Nellie Scharenburge of Waverly and Mrs. Fay Hamilton of Waverly.

APPOINTMENTS NOT MADE

Mayor-elect Fred N. Tynes said Wednesday afternoon that he had nothing to announce in the way of prospective appointments. "I have made no pledges or promises to anyone, and any rumors that might be heard on the streets are absolutely unfounded," said Mr. Tynes.

Gets Shipment Of Geese

James Goodpaster, Jr., manager of the Goodpaster Zoo, has just received four fine imported Porto Rican geese. These birds are of a light gray color and much larger than the ordinary geese. The young man has already received offers ranging from five to ten dollars for settings of eggs from these geese.

Mrs. James Mitchell, of West Third street, who has been very ill for the past week, is reported improving.

Squire Sol Mershon, of [illegible] Creek, was a visitor in the city Wednesday. He was re-elected justice of the peace Tuesday over D. W. Metzger, Democrat, by 65 majority. The Squire has already served two terms.

Mrs. Jenkins, who recently underwent an operation at the Hempstead hospital, was discharged on Wednesday.

Mrs. D. M. Jewett, of West Front street, left today for a week's visit with relatives and friends at Lombardsville.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET GIVEN A GOOD START

The Scioto County Sunday School convention opened a two days' session in the Sunday school room of the Second Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

No county delegates were present at the opening session, but a number are expected to arrive for the sessions Thursday.

Rev. T. H. McAfee had charge of the song service, and by the inspiring songs selected by him the convention started off with much interest.

After several selections Rev. McAfee read the scripture lesson, taking the thirteenth verse of the fifteenth chapter of Romans.

A. Taylor, of Sciotoville, who was on the program for an address on "The Needs of the Sunday School," was unable to attend because of sickness. Mr. J. H. Finney, who is an enthusiastic Sunday school worker, was asked to address the convention and he gave a most interesting short talk.

Mr. Finney says the most serious need is that teachers in the Sunday school should be as steadfast, zealous, and labor as hard as a teacher, as though they were laboring for others for a salary. He stated he had no sympathy with the teacher who was tardy.

The speaker made a strong climax to his address when he made a plea for more consecrated, Christian teachers for the Sunday schools.

Mrs. J. E. Riley gave an interesting address on "Echoes From the State Convention." Mrs. Riley was enthusiastic over her trip to the state convention, which was held in Dayton last June. She told of many interesting lectures given at the convention, and her entire address received close attention.

President Dowling, who had charge of the opening session, appointed two committees to report Thursday. They were as follows:

Nominations—J. H. Finney, Rev. T. H. McAfee and Mrs. J. W. Ricker.

Committee on Resolutions—Rev. Crayton S. Brooks, chairman; Mrs. Isabella Thomas and Mr. N. B. Crabtree.

Before the afternoon session closed, Rev. McAfee stated that it was his belief that to accomplish more good the next convention should be held in some rural church. "The city people," said Rev. McAfee, "are either too busy or too indifferent to attend a Sunday school convention."

A committee will be appointed tonight to select a time and place for the next convention.

NOTES.

The officers of the County Sunday School Association are: President, C. E. Dowling; vice president, J. H. Cook; secretary, E. C. Hood; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Smith; teacher training, W. J. Henry; primary, Miss Lizzie Bauer; home, Mrs. F. W. Chase; adult, Rev. G. H. Baumann; senior, Douglas Miller; intermediate, Mrs. P. E. Selby; junior, Mrs. W. H. Howard; temperance, A. Taylor; missionary, Mrs. J. W. Ricker; visitation, John T. Breece; executive committee consists of officers and George D. Scudder, P. D. Conger and W. J. Henry.

Mr. George D. Scudder, of this city, is a member of the executive committee of the Ohio State Sunday School Association.

Mrs. Phoebe W. Curtiss, state superintendent of the elementary department, will arrive here on Thursday morning to attend the convention. Mrs. Curtiss' home is in Columbus, but she has been in Ironton, where she has been lecturing. Mrs. Curtiss is a national worker in the cradle roll department, and is on the program for three addresses Thursday.

The noise of the carpenter in the main auditorium did not seem to annoy the speakers at the afternoon session, although at times it was almost deafening.

Is Seriously Ill.

Mrs. Elmer Malone is seriously ill at her home, 113 East Mill St. She has been sick for the past week and is no better.

Mrs. Charles Walker, wife and granddaughter Edna Mae Malone went out to Jacktown Sunday to visit friends.

The brick paving on Tenth St. between Gay and Findlay, alongside the new Selby switch, has been completed.

Miss Minnie Knost of South Webster, is visiting among some friends in the city.

The 24-inch storm sewer on Tenth street, from Findlay to Chillicothe street, is almost completed.

Wes Morrison will be tried before Mayor Morgan, of New Boston, Thursday, on a charge of hitting John Boston with a rock.

NOTES AND NOTIONS.

A QUESTION was raised recently as to whether women in general were spending more on their clothes than formerly, and this was more or less proved to be really the case. It is quite safe to assert that we dress better than was the case some years back, and we certainly have more occasions for which to provide suitable dresses. We all spend so much more time travelling and have in consequence to provide the necessary outfits. Also with the advent of motoring and visiting in the country at the end of the week, which is so much in vogue, in addition to the smarter clothes required for town wear, we are obliged to admit that our expenditure is not on a decreasing scale. We have become more tolerant, too, in our attitude toward the fancy prices asked for model garments at many swagger houses which would have roused righteous indignation and pious wrath in an earlier era.

On considering what appears to be an exorbitantly priced article one is apt to overlook the amount of work and ingenuity that many an innocent looking confection represents, and the thought of the artist mind that conceived it, and these are not things to be obtained cheaply. There is nothing for it, therefore, but to resign ourselves to the inevitable, and we must also see to it that our husbands and fathers are brought to a similar subjection of spirit. It is always an economy, by the way, to get a really good thing from the start, and cheap bargains are usually to be avoided.

MT. HOFFER

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffer and granddaughter, Blanche, were calling on their daughter, Mrs. Henry Harris, of Rarden, Thursday.

Elva Hoffer returned home from Midland, Friday.

Stella Russ is spending a few days here with her parents.

Sylvia Hoffer and daughter, Gracie, attended the funeral of J. J. Forsythe, at Rarden, Friday.

Frank Steward, of Huntington, W. Va., is spending a few days here with relatives.

Henry Farris and wife spent Saturday night with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffer.

There was no school here Thursday and Friday on account of the election and the funeral of J. J. Forsythe.

William Hoffer and wife were calling at James Miller's, Sunday.

Miss Ida Hoffer is suffering with sore eyes.

RARDEN

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Fake, of Portsmouth, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Taylor Saturday and Sunday.

A series of meetings began here Sunday, conducted by Mrs. Keartz, of Kentucky and Rev. Wolfe, of Wamsley.

The last sad rites of J. J. Forsythe, who passed away at his home here, were held Wednesday, Oct. 25, and were laid to rest in the Newman cemetery Friday, at 1 p. m. The Red Men and Pocahontas lodges had charge of the remains and paid a touching tribute to their deceased brother.

Miss Muriel Johnson was shopping in Portsmouth last week.

A. Jones, of Peebles, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Murfin.

Mrs. William Keyes, of Cincinnati, Charles Brown, of Huntington, W. Va., and Earl Willard, of Akron, attended the funeral of J. J. Forsythe.

Misses Mary and Lena Shoots, of Portsmouth, were visitors here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blackburn were calling on Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Blackburn, Sunday.

Miss Ida Murfin, a very popular young woman of this village, has taken a position at Otway as assistant postmistress.

Mr. and Mrs. Enze Thompson and little daughter were visiting friends at Locust Grove last week.

Mrs. Zola Hunt, of Portsmouth, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson, for the past week, has returned home.

GOOSE CREEK

The many friends of Mrs. Charles Miller, a well known young woman of Wheelersburg, were pained to learn of her death, which occurred at Hempstead hospital early Monday morning. Her demise was the result of an operation she underwent for appendicitis, and subsequently the birth of a son, who lived only a few hours. Mrs. Miller was but 23 years of age, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Willis, who reside at Coal Grove, where the remains were taken for funeral services and burial.

Mrs. Katherine Rippenhoff, who has been visiting for the past month with relatives in this section, expects to return home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. L. Joliet is enjoying a month's visit with Mrs. Warren Turner, on Lick Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schneider and family, of Wheelersburg, were visiting among friends near here, recently.

Chas. Mootz, of Cincinnati, will be up next week for a brief visit to friends and to cast his vote.

John Dold, a prominent Happy Hollow farmer, is at home from a visit of several days with friends in the Peerless.

Mrs. Phoebe Schwamberger, son and daughter, of Sycamore Point, were entertained Sunday by Jacob Hammerstein and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Turner and daughter, Miss Ethel, of Green Knoll, visited relatives on the creek recently.

WEST JORDAN

P. A. Yinger, a progressive farmer of Sugar Camp, was at Cove last week, where he bought his fall fertilizer.

The extremely wet weather has so delayed wheat sowing that a number of acres are yet to be sown.

The saw mill located on the Riegel Ridge, which has been idle since last harvest, is again in operation and promises a steady run during the winter.

Roscoe Mault, of near Harrisonville, was here last week and butchered a beef for his brother-in-law, Peter Yinger, and purchased two porkers of F. M. Bowman, which were delivered to the butchers of Portsmouth.

F. M. Bowman and family were visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowman, of Yapville, Sunday.

P. H. Meldick, our local stock dealer, and one of the efficient members of the school board, was visiting Comer school, Friday.

W. H. Bowman of Yapville, was here aiding his son with his wheat sowing, Thursday. While here he also purchased some future porkers.

John Golim, of Grahamsville, purchased a fine farm mare of P. A. Yinger, Wednesday. The price paid was $100.

Harvey Downs, ex-auditor of Jackson county, spent last week with his brother-in-law, M. C. Riegel.

Mr. and Mrs. Elden Sheward, of Antioch, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Flaker, of Mabee.

Miss Lucy Russ met with a painful accident one day last week, while playing with her schoolmates. She fell and injured her arm so severely that she was absent from school for several days. She is able to be out again.

To clean dust stained alabaster ornaments, make a paste of whiting, soap and milk. The paste must be left to dry on and then washed away, the surface being then dried with a cloth and then with a flannel, when the ornaments will be found clean and unharmed.

Those who keep up a regular correspondence with several friends will find it a good plan to keep envelopes addressed to each of them in some convenient place, and into these to slip newspaper cuttings and notes of things which will interest each particular correspondent. When the time comes to write the letter it will be found that the task is practically accomplished.

At this season of the year it is well to prepare against sudden storms by tying the stems up in as natural a manner as possible. Do not bunch them, as this method destroys the shape of the plant. With a little care there is no reason why the possessor of these autumn flowers may not adorn her table from her own garden until snow time.

A MIGHTY REMEDY

Cures Backache, Sideache, and all Kidney, Liver and Bladder Diseases, or Money Back.

Yes, money back; that's the offer that the Pure Drug Co., the agents in Portsmouth, makes if Thompson's Barosma fails to cure any of the above named diseases.

And when you stop to think, that's a wonderfully generous offer from the viewpoint of the afflicted, the sick and the suffering.

So if you are ill, have the blues, have lost ambition, have backache or pains in your side, if your urine is high colored and your eyes dull and complexion sallow, the chances are that your kidneys are weak and clogged up, and that your blood is full of impurities.

So why wait when Thompson's Barosma is guaranteed to restore your health. Get a bottle today at The Pure Drug Co., Chillicothe street. There are two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00.

Five years ago Charles Scholz, of Dunkirk, N. Y., was so weak and run down that he decided to give up his business. He took Barosma, and in a few months he regained his health, gained 55 pounds in weight. Today he writes: "I have been in perfect health ever since I wrote you five years ago." All druggists.

How to Train a Wife

She Attempts to Disprove the Ridiculous Idea That a Woman Cannot Keep a Secret.

"I KNOW something you don't know!" exclaimed the Hopeful Housewife as the Confirmed Commuter crossed the threshold of his suburban home.

"Well, I'll know it in a few minutes," answered the Commuter, confidently. "When did you hear it—and how many persons have heard it since then?"

The Hopeful Housewife flashed a fiery glance in his direction.

"It's a secret," she said, "and no one knows it but me, and, of course, the person who told it. I promised her I'd never, never tell!"

"And to whom did she swear undying secrecy?" the Commuter inquired with a sardonic smile.

"That isn't fair!" his wife answered, coldly. "That's all. And the idea that a woman can't keep a secret is as ridiculous as it's ancient. Why you know very well that in the Middle Ages women were often put to the torture to make them reveal secrets which had been confided to them, and it's not on record that they betrayed them half as often as men did. Look at the women among the Nihilists and other secret societies. No one ever hears of their turning traitor and informing the police. You can't say as much for the men members!"

"Yes, but on the other hand think how many men have been ruined just because of a misplaced confidence in some woman who couldn't keep a secret," the Commuter answered—"husbands whose wives have babbled of their affairs, perhaps, or poor devils infatuated with vampires!"

"I don't know that husbands are any less talkative than wives," replied his wife, coldly. "Do you remember that time I started rolling on the floor to reduce my weight, and you promised you wouldn't ever tell a soul, and then you went and wrote an article about it. I think that was a dreadful breach of confidence. And," she added, with a keen and shriveling look, "how do you happen to know so much about vampires?"

"I don't!" answered the Commuter meekly, backing away as fast as possible from dangerous ground. "Of course, my dear, I wasn't speaking about you, but of women in general. You're different! You certainly don't expect me to regard you as merely a standard specimen of feminity? If I did, I'd be in love with the whole sex."

The Hopeful Housewife basked under the compliment and beamed radiantly upon the Commuter.

"That's very nice," she said, "and you know, dear, I don't like to have any secrets from you. I'm not sure that it is exactly right. And it's such an interesting secret, too!"

"THE CONFIRMED COMMUTER SMILED BEHIND HIS NEWSPAPER."

The Confirmed Commuter did not rise to this bait. He knew better. Taking up the evening paper he became thoroughly absorbed in it and for at least five minutes no one spoke.

"It's awfully queer that a person should ask a woman not to tell her own husband something, isn't it?" came finally from the Hopeful Housewife.

The Confirmed Commuter smiled behind his newspaper, though apparently he did not hear the plaintive inquiry.

"Of course, she didn't mention you by name," the voice went on. "She just said she would tell me something if I promised never to tell a living soul."

"Well," said the Commuter, indifferently "that's all right."

"Yes, I suppose it is," she answered, "but somehow I can't believe she meant to include you in the promise. The more I think of it the more I'm certain she would be perfectly willing for me to tell you, and I feel I ought to tell you. It isn't right for a wife to keep anything from her husband is it?" she asked with a strange eagerness.

The Commuter's reply was inaudible, or rather unintelligible, being really a suppressed chuckle at the way his wife's conscience was working out an excuse for her to tell the secret she could keep no longer.

He glanced suddenly at the clock.

"I'm sure she meant I could tell you—anyway, I'm going to. It's about Mrs. Jones' hair! I never knew whether it was a wig or not and I was dying to find out and Mrs. Brown was here this afternoon and she said Mrs. Jones' sister-in-law told Mrs. Green's niece, who told her that it is a wig! And of course they had all promised they would never tell and I had to swear I would never mention it and—"

The Commuter glanced quietly at the clock once more.

"And I've won a little bet I made with myself," he said, "that you'd tell me the fatal secret before I'd been in the house fifteen minutes."

REPUBLICAN MAYOR IS ELECTED AT IRONTON

Thomas Kennedy, Republican candidate for mayor of Ironton won out over A. M. Collett by a majority of less than 100. It was a hard fought campaign from start to finish.

Mr. Kennedy is well known here as he was located in Portsmouth for about five years and occupied the Schlichter property on West Tenth street. At that time he was local manager for the Prudential Life Insurance Company. A. M. Collett, who was defeated, is an ex-mayor of Ironton.

Here is the ticket elected in Ironton Tuesday:

Mayor—T. J. Kennedy.

President of Council—F. W. Ehrlich.

Auditor—C. K. Turley.

Solicitor—A. J. Layne.

Council-at-Large—Adam Daniel, E. F. Moore, W. H. Heiner; First Ward, H. A. Mehaffey; Second Ward, Silas Clake; Third Ward, Jos. W. Ines; Fourth Ward, D. J. James.

Cemetery Trustees—J. W. Berkley, Henry Flehr, Otto Green.

Assessors—Geo. W. Stewart, First Ward; J. P. O'Shaughnessey, Second Ward; Edward McElwaine (Dem.) Third Ward; Albert Moore, Fourth Ward.

Justice of the Peace—Arthur Hannan and W. H. Neal, (Dem.)

Constables—Charles Upp and Mike Brannigan.

Township Trustees—Edward Rust, M. J. Cullen and W. R. Richardson.

Township Clerk—A. M. Herity.

Township Treasurer — Geo. Roetting.

Board of Education— P. C. Sloan, W. G. Ward and E. L. Todd.

Constitutional Delegate—Probably Fred G. Leete (Dem.)

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to return our sincere thanks to relatives, friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness during the illness and death of our beloved son and brother, Frank.

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

Wellston Foot Ball Team Has Disbanded

The W. H. S. football squad held a meeting at Central Building Friday evening and gave Manager Lockard instructions to cancel all the remaining contests of 1911, says the Wellston Sentinel. There were not enough men willing to come out to make an eleven and so there was nothing left to do but to call the games off. Captain Rogers, who has been the main stay of the team, resigned two weeks ago, because most of the work was thrown upon him, and as a result he was badly hurt in every game played. The team, although an exceptionally light one, made a very good record when one considers its heavy opponents, but grit can't win in football games, and perhaps it is just as well that they have disbanded for the season.

GET YOUR MONEY BACK

If This Medicine Does Not Satisfactorily Benefit You

Practicing physicians making a specialty of stomach troubles are really responsible for the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made. We have simply profited by the experience of experts.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be an excellent remedy for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time helps to bring about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets help to insure healthy appetite, aid digestion, and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain them only at our store—The Rexall Store. Wurster Bros., 410 Chillicothe Street.

Singer Like Ball Player

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—A singer under contract to sing in a church choir must carry out his agreement just the same as a baseball player.

Such was the decision rendered today by Judge Terrell in the suit brought by Mgr. Lee of St. Matthew's Catholic church against Lawrence J. Mils, the first tenor in his choir. The priest claimed damages to the extent of $100.

The contract was held to be valid by Judge Terrell. He quoted the suit of the Philadelphia baseball club against Napoleon Lajoie for refusing to play with that team as being a case in point. He awarded nominal damages of $10.

Biggs Bros. Retire

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Announcement of a notable change in the mercantile field in Huntington was made today when it was officially stated that Geo. N. and Sam G. Briggs would retire from active participation in the business of the Biggs-Wilson Dry Goods Company to devote their attention to their other extensive interests. Their retirement follows the completion of a deal which has been pending for several weeks by virtue of which George D. Bradshaw of Columbus, O., and Henry Zinner of Athens, O., become heavily interested in the corporation and an arrangement whereby Mr. Bradshaw becomes the active director of the big store on Fourth avenue.

Boys Had Brick Bats

Several boys were marched to police headquarters by irate pedestrians, Tuesday night, for scattering brickbats along Gay street. Some of them had stumbled and fallen, and one or two narrowly escaped serious injury. The boys were severely reprimanded by Capt. Tom Albrecht.

WALKS ACROSS CONTINENT

H. B. Curll, an aged jeweler, who turned pedestrian in hopes of preserving his health and recovering his eyesight, reached Portsmouth Tuesday evening on his cross-continent journey.

Mr. Curll is a native of Clarion, Pa., and left New York 28 months ago repairing clocks and contributing articles to New York and Philadelphia newspapers to meet expenses. He has traveled 3,500 miles to date, usually walking about seventeen or eighteen miles in a day. He visited police headquarters Tuesday night, gathering statistics about the city.

CASCARETS CURE A BILIOUS HEADACHE

Gently but thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and you feel great by morning.

You're bilious, you have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that every disorder of the stomach, liver and intestines can be quickly cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you and your entire family good for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

Killed By C. & O.

Ashland, Ky., was visited by another tragedy Tuesday at 12:40 when local west-bound C. & O. train No. 7 struck William Lemaster, at the 29th street crossing and hurled him into eternity. Mr. Lemaster, who was an employe of the Herrmann Lumber Co., had just left that company's plant and started across the railroad tracks to the Sixth ward voting precinct to vote, when he was struck by the train and instantly killed. The right side of his face was mashed, his skull was crushed, one leg broken and numerous other bruises upon his body. Mr. Lemaster was 64 years old and had been a valuable employe of the Herrmann Lumber Company for about a year. He was honest, upright and well thought of by his employers and all who knew him. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his untimely death.

Case Goes to High Court

Ironton, O., Nov. 8- The damage cases of Nina M. Bryant, administratrix of Wm. J. Bryant, vs. the C. & O. railway company, and of Frederick T. Bowman, administrator of Robt. M. Bowman vs. the C. & O., have been remanded to the circuit court, the proper security for the costs having been given.

Tynes Gets Ovation In Impromptu Parade

After the election of Fred N. Tynes, the Republican nominee, was conceded by the Board of Elections, friends of Mr. Tynes secured the River City Band Tuesday night and they whooped up things in great shape for about an hour.

A parade was given over the principal streets, and Mr. Tynes headed it in Dan W. Conroy's machine. Then came the band and several hundred Tynes supporters, "Posey" Flowers, who has visions of getting back on the police force, triumphantly carried the flag, and close on his heels came Wells A. Hutchins, John G. Reilly, Jobey Phillips and Sheriff Eckhart. Mr. Tynes was all smiles and he was kept bowing here and there, as many of his friends lined the sidewalk and cheered him heartily. It was the happiest night of Mr. Tynes' life and his friends certainly gave him a rousing send-off.

When he smilingly emerged from the Republican headquarters in the Masonic Temple at 10 o'clock, after his victory was assured, he was almost mobbed by several hundred of his friends, who proposed the parade and quickly engaged the River City Band.

DOG COLLAR FOR BRIDE

South Norwalk, Conn., Nov. 8.—A dog collar held up a wedding here today. In a spirit of fun the best man snapped it around the neck of Miss Mabel Stevenson, a belle of Silvermine, as she was preparing for the nuptials, and as the contrivance could not be unlocked or broken the bride had to be rushed in an auto four miles to this place, where the combined efforts of a locksmith and blacksmith were necessary to remove the encumbrance.

"Prepare to meet thy fate," said Howard Aiken, as he snapped the dog collar around Miss Stevenson's neck as she made ready for the ceremony, which was scheduled for 2 p. m. George Worden, the bridegroom, tried his best to free the girl and so did the other members of the party. While the two smiths were at work the minister and guests sat in the parlor, laughing and joking at the unfortunate bride's expense.

SAYS A DOG'S DEATH WAS CAUSE OF WIFE'S ILLNESS

New York, Nov. 8—Justice Garretson, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, granted yesterday $50 counsel fee to Mrs. Kate R. Alexe, of No. 323 Argyle road, that borough, in her separation suit. Her husband Frank Alexe is a real estate broker.

The plaintiff says that during the nine years of her married life she has been ill-treated. "For the preservation of life and health," she swears, she had to leave the defendant last Feb. 20.

These charges are denied. Alexe says he is not responsible for his wife's ill-health, but that she became ill, and has continuously remained all, since their pet poodle died.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures [illegible] debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"Favorite Prescription" is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice.

Some of the numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 31 one-cent stamps for cloth-bound copy.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge, by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

KENTUCKY SWINGS INTO DEMOCRATIC COLUMN

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8—James B. McCreary, of Madison county, former governor of Kentucky, former United States Senator, former delegate to the Peace Conference at The Hague, and former President of the International Peace Society, as well as ex-Confederate soldier, Tuesday was elected Governor of Kentucky by an overwhelming majority. He defeated Judge Ed C. O'Rear, member of the Court of Appeals and former Chief Justice of that body.

Senator McCreary's victory was a victory for the Democratic party in the state, the entire ticket being elected. He again assumes the gubernatorial duties after a lapse of 32 years, and, although 72 years of age, passesses unusual mental vigor and is physically strong for one of his years.

McCreary's majority changing from 20,000 to 25,000 exceeded the most sanguine hopes of many of the party leaders.

Democratic city tickets were elected in Paducah, Covington, Lexington, Frankfort and Owensboro, with an even break in Bowling Green. Returns from every section of the state show immense Democratic gains and the indications at midnight were that the Democratic state ticket has carried 10 of the 11 districts with majorities ranging from 500 to 12,000, elected two Democratic Railroad Commissioners gaining control of the State Railroad Commission, and swept the legislative districts of the state, having an unprecedented majority for the next Legislature, so that the party under the leadership of McCreary, will dictate and control all legislation.

Early returns indicate that the Democrats have carried the congressional districts as follows: First District, by 11,000; the Second District by 4,000; the Third District by 1,500; the Fourth District by 3,000; the Fifth District by 4,500; the Sixth District by 6,500; the Seventh District by 7,000; the Eighth District by 2,5,00; the Ninth District by 1,000 and the Tenth District by 500.

The gains predicted for Judge O'Rear in the Eleventh District did not materialize, so that the complete returns may show the Democratic state ticket's majority to run 25,000.

SAD NEWS WAITS FOR MR. BAYERL

Coming all the way from Alaska, Charles Bayerl will be in Cincinnati, Thursday, anticipating a joyous reunion with his step-father, George Munion. He is unaware of the death of Mr. Munion recently, having been traveling about, enroute home, for some time.

A letter was received from Mr. Bayerl this morning, addressed to George Munion, arranging for the meeting in Cincinnati Thursday. A brother, Robert Bayerl, will go to Cincinnati and convey to Charles the sad news of their bereavement.

THE ELECTION AT RUSSELL

Russell, Ky., Nov. 8.—The election in Russell, Ky., passed off very quietly and resulted in the re-election of the entire Progressive ticket for village council over the Citizens' ticket. The vote stood:

Progressives: J. W. Remy 105, D. B. Hyden 103, J. H. Stephens 99, Dr. Fitch 100, J. M. Gilley 105.

Citizens: J. D. Foster 55, E. D. Huddleston 59, D. G. Smith 65, Geo. Osborn 62, E. Smallridge 56.

McCreary, D., for governor, had a majority over O'Rear of 35 in the two Russell precincts, while Williams, D., for representative, carried the precincts by 134.

Eggers, R., for representative, carried Greenup (town) by 21.

PROPER TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

The first thing to be done in the treatment of Catarrh is to begin the use of a medicine that will have a direct effect on the source of the disease; in no other way can any curative progress be made. S.S.S. does this more quickly and satisfactorily than any other medicine. It is the most penetrating of all blood purifiers, thoroughly, yet gently, expelling all catarrhal matter and impurities from the circulation, and by its fine tonic properties strengthening and building up the system in such healthy manner that it is enabled to overcome the depressing effects of Catarrh. Some local treatment is often desired to open the air passages of the head and nose and relieve the congestion and "tickling" of the throat, and other unpleasant symptoms. There are many helpful measures which may be resorted to, and there are others which may be harmful, and to aid Catarrh sufferers we have prepared a special treatise on the disease which will be of great value to any who suffer with this trouble. This book together with any medical advice free to all who write and request it. Take S. S. S. regularly and according to directions, and it will certainly remove the cause and cure your Catarrh. S.S.S. is sold at drug stores.

It's Olive Tablets
For You!

Beware of the habit of constipation. It develops from just a few constipated days, especially in Old People, unless you take yourself in hand.

Coax the jaded bowel muscles back to normal action with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Don't force them to unnatural action with severe medicines or by merely flushing out the intestines with nasty, sickening cathartics.

Dr. Edwards believes in gentleness, persistency and Nature's assistance.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle, yet positive. There is never any pain or griping when Olive Tablets are used. Just the kind of treatment old persons should have.

Try Olive Tablets mixed with olive oil and have no trouble with your bowels or stomach.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

All druggists sell them in neat pocket packages—at 10c and 25c.

Williams Seems To Be In The Lead

Incomplete returns Wednesday indicated the election of Howard Williams, Democratic candidate for representative in Greenup county, Ky., by a small majority.

Williams is a C. & O. conductor and resides at Russell, Ky. Chas. Harvey, the Socialist candidate for representative, carried Springville precinct by 20. The Socialists polled fifty votes in this precinct, which is usually Republican by 40 or 50. Only 10 Socialist votes were polled in Fullerton precinct, which the Republicans carried for their state ticket by 33. Joseph Eggers, of Traitt, Ky., the Republican candidate for representative, carried Fullerton precinct by 13.

The bond issue for the building of roads carried in Greenup county by a big majority, and it shows that the people over there have at last decided to get out of the mud holes they have put up with so many years past.

MAKING OF MADDALENA IS THE PLAY TONIGHT

There was another splendid audience at the Grand Tuesday night to greet Mary Emerson and her excellent company, who presented "The Morals of Marcus," a very clever comedy drama.

Miss Emerson was perfectly at home in the role of Carlotta, a Syrian maiden, which was a new character for her, and which gave her a splendid opportunity to display her versatility. She looked sweet and charming in the Syrian garb and she made many new friends.

Franklin Ramsay, as Sir Marcus Ordeyne, Ten Eyck Clay as Sebastian, John Wray as Stenson, Walter Sherwood as Gregory Barnes, Eleanore Blanchard as Mrs. Ordeyne, and Anna Jewett as Lady Elmira Wynn were very good.

"The Making of Maddalena" will be presented tonight. This is one of Miss Emerson's strongest plays and hould be witnessed by a large audience.

The Vote In Greenup Co.

Greenup, Ky., Nov. 8.—O'Rear has carried Greenup county by about 300. The rest of the state ticket will receive about the same majority. The race for the legislature between Williams, Democrat, and Eggers, Republican, is close and will probably take the official count to tell who is elected. The vote in Greenup county was very light.

WHY DO THEY DO IT?

"Why people should weep over the imaginary sorrows shown on the stage, when there is so much real sorrow in the world, I never could understand," says a well-known writer.

And it is just as hard for us to see why people will suffer needlessly for months or years. Here is the case of M. Carter, of South Akron, O., who says:

"For two years I was in a badly run-down condition, felt weak and miserable and lost considerable flesh. Then I heard that Vinol was a great thing to build up the body and create new strength.

"Now, after taking Vinol and getting so much good from it I have decided to write and tell you that it has made me strong and well again, and I have gained in weight, too."

If you are weak and sickly, need new strength and better blood, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, for depend upon it, that is what you need and it will build you up. We guarantee it—money back if you are not satisfied.—Frank Amann.

CAPT. N. W. EVANS IS A WINNER IN CONTEST

Capt. Nelson W. Evans was elected as delegate from Scioto county to the constitutional convention, at Tuesday's election, defeating his nearest competitor, Judge A. T. Holcomb, by a majority of 331.

The victor in the four-cornered contest, while he lost the city to Mr. Holcomb by 230 votes, showed big gains when the country precincts began coming in, and not only wiped out his closest rival's lead, but piled up a comfortable majority.

A total of 7803 votes was cast for the four candidates, divided 4731 in the city and 3072 in the country. Capt. Evans carried 9 precincts in the city and 23 of the 25 precincts in the county.

Dodge, Socialist, won third place by an even 100 over Thompson, Democrat. The total vote in the city and county cast for each candidate is presented below:

Evans (R.)—City 1309; county 1403; total 2712.

Holcomb (R)—City 1539; county 852; total 2391.

Thompson (D)--City 866; county 439; total 1305.

Dodge (S)—City 1017; county 358; total 1405.

Total vote—7803.

Evans' majority over Holcomb, 321.

SUPPOSE you were in need of money and wanted it quickly and quietly, where would you go? You would not go to a friend if you could help it---neither would you go to the old style money lenders who charge high and unreasonable rates. But you would do this. You would go in a business-like way to a loan company that did business in a straight forward and legitimate manner; arrange for your loan at a low rate; get a copy of your agreement, which is a plain statement of the sum borrowed and the amounts of your regular payments.

We transact business with thousands of people in just this way. Loans are made within one day of application, quietly and confidentially. That is why we are doing the loan business of this city.

Socialists Made A Fine Showing

The Socialists are jubilant over the showing they made in the municipal election held on Tuesday. Their candidate for mayor, Geo. Mooney, polled 1237 votes in the city, a gain of not less than 700, and one of which the party as a whole is extremely proud.

The Socialists worked valiantly for their ticket, putting forth their hardest licks in behalf of their candidate for mayor, as is shown by the splendid vote Mr. Mooney polled. Many of the Socialists were confident that Mr. Mooney would at least be the second highest candidate on the ticket, but they got plenty of consolation out of the returns at that, and are now prepared to wage a relentless warfare against the two old parties.

Next year in no less than five instances, the Socialists will have to be reckoned with when it comes to naming of the election officials. In no precinct did they have the highest vote, but they were second in five precincts, ie., E of the Second, B of the Third, D of the Fourth, G and I of the Fourth. In all of these precincts the Socialists ran second and in four of these precincts they received more votes than the Republicans.

It is generally conceded that many dry Republicans voted for Mr. Mooney, rather than support either Searey or Tynes. This fact is apparent because Mr. Mooney, the Socialist candidate, received nearly 300 votes in excess of the other Socialist candidates, who received about 900 votes, which gives a true estimate of the Socialists strength in the city.

Timely Advice

A Protection Against Bronchitis and Pneumonia.

Into a pitcher put a tablespoonful of butter, one-quarter cup light brown sugar, an ounce fresh, whole allspice and a pint of Duffy's pure malt whiskey. Let it stand for half an hour, then add one-half pint boiling water, let it stand again for a short while, and before serving stir well and add the juice of one orange and one lemon. This is to be served in a wine glass.

Dr. D. G. Soper of Detroit, Mich., says this drink yields good results from every tablespoonful."

PROGRESSIVES ARE HAPPY OVER ELECTION

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 8—Progressives in all parties saw victory today in the election results. The only severe set back was in New Jersey. The results in municipal elections showed strong grounds for gratification. The crushing blow delivered to Boss Cox at Cincinnati, the victory of Rudolph Blankenburg over Penrose in Philadelphia; the loss of the New York assembly by Tammany; the great Socialist gains and every other feature are hailed over the country as "a rule of the people."

Great gains were scored everywhere by the Socialists who elected mayors in eight cities in Ohio, made a sweeping victory in Schenectady, New York, by the election of mayors and assemblymen in Kansas and New Mexico they made great strikes. In Michigan they showed unexpected strength and in Mississippi they claimed to have elected a lieutenant governor. Mayors they also elected at Reading and New Castle, Pa.

Harmon Democrats were greatly encouraged and pointed comparative results in Ohio and New Jersey as indicating the relative strength of Harmon and Wilson.

Rumpus At Rarden

An exciting incident in connection with the election happened at Rarden last night when a guard, angered because the election officials refused to admit him to the polling place while the count was being made, bursted open the door, and taking the lamps fled. The matter was reported to the deputy state supervisors Wednesday.

School Plan Is Defeated

The proposition submitted at Tuesday's election to centralize the schools in Green township, was overwhelmingly defeated, the total vote being 180 divided 154 against and 26 for.

Doctors At Convention

CARRIED OUT EXTRA BALLOTS

Official ballots run short in Morgan township again at Tuesday's election and made a requisition on the supervisors here for a supply.

The local board accordingly engaged Tide Davenport as a special messenger to carry the supply there post haste. Tide mounted his motor cycle and negotiated the 18 miles in just a trifle more than 30 minutes.

Cut Down To Three

(By United Press.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 8.—After both sides of the McNamara case had finally secured five men as jurors, Judge Bordwell reduced the number to three by excusing jurors Samuel Mendenhall and William F. Clark. These two men objected to being sworn and only consented to take the oath when the court promised to hear their urgent excuses that they should not be forced to serve. This leaves only Byron Lisk, S. D. Green and Robert Bain as permanent jurors.

ANNEXED TO CINCINNATI

(By Associated Press.)

Cincinnati, Nov. 8—As the result of yesterday's election Cincinnati increased her population to 384,147, four of the small municipalities on her borders having voted to accept the invitation to become a part of Cincinnati. Hartwell, Oakley, Pleasant Ridge and Fernbank were the villages to accept.

RIVER NEWS

The Gallipolis Tribune says:

"Engineer Chas. L. Brown, of the Greyhound, came up Tuesday to vote. The Greyhound is reported to be doing a big business, even if Ironton and Portsmouth did go wet. The Greyhound carried a great deal of booze to these towns that has stopped now.

"The Thealka has withdrawn from the Portsmouth and Vanceburg trade on account of the cold weather and high swells elements which the Thealka is not equipped to fight. Capt. Sam Hamilton, pilot on the Thealka, has come home and Clerk Will Lanier went to his home at Crown City. The boat is said to have had good business in the trade.

"Mate Charles Barton, who has been on the Greyhound in Charley Arthurs' place for two weeks, passed through here today on his way home to Racine.

"It is reported that the Lucille Nowland has withdrawn from the Pittsburg and Cincinnati trade on account of dull business. It is reported that Captains Pope and Noll, her owners, will take the Nowland to Cairo. She is a good boat for some trade and is well-equipped."

MILADY'S TOILET TABLE

BY EMILY DeMAR

FOR A BEAUTIFUL FORM.

Exercising in itself is good, but is of no avail for developing the bust or rounding out hollows, as this disfigurement is due to starved, underlying tissues, and to correct the fault it is necessary to properly nourish these sensitive glands and muscles. A galtol tonic (which is the Vaucaire treatment), is very beneficial, because it goes right to the seat of trouble and so energizes the delicate tissues and glands that they quickly respond and soon assume their correct size and proportions. Any woman can easily prepare her own Vaucaire treatment by making a syrup with a cupful and a half of sugar and a pint of water, then adding one ounce galtol. Take a tablespoonful before meals, and in a short time the figure will be plump and symmetrical as nature intended. Galtol is a little expensive, but for this purpose it has no equal.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS.

Jane—Unless the electric needle is used by an expert, I would not advise you to try it. Beauty specialists now recommend simple sulfo solution for removing hair from face or arms—this simple solution does not burn like powders and pastes and is very easy to apply. Simply rub a little on the hairy parts with the finger tip and in about two minutes the hairs will vanish and the skin will be left soft and white. Druggists charge $1.00 an ounce for sulfo solution but it is worth it.

Betty: Your "muddy," oily skin will not cause worriment very much longer if you make up and use this amarol retiring lotion: Buy two ounces amarol at the drug store and dissolve it in one pint hot water, then before retiring at night thoroughly cleanse the skin and apply the amarol retiring lotion generously, rubbing lightly until it disappears. Do this every night and before long your skin will be clear and smooth and take on the natural rose tint of youth and health.

Anita: Little good results from applying olive oil to the scalp. To overcome the itchy, scaly condition, it is necessary to employ a tonic to stimulate the hair-sacs and tender tissues. You can make a pint of the best tonic by pouring one ounce beta-quinol in a half-pint alcohol, then adding one-half pint water. For best results use frequently and plentifully, each time giving the scalp a thorough massage. Using this beta-quinol tonic soon corrects scalp and hair troubles, encourages the secretion of coloring matter, necessary to restore the former shade and brilliancy, and induces a heavy growth of soft, silky hair.

Ida: Nature is kind to the complexion when her laws are not abused, but where powders and cosmetics are used to excess the harvest is a wrinkled, aged, mottled, unsightly skin. Stop clogging and smothering the pores, and try this simple treatment, if you would regain a soft, velvety skin and wholesome complexion: Use plenty of good soap and warm water to remove the dust and dirt, then after drying, apply a cerol cream, massaging in well, and soon your skin will be free from impurities and the true beauty of youthhood in all its charm and loveliness will be yours to enjoy. To make the cream, dissolve two ounces cerol in three-fourths pint boiling water, stir till smooth.

C. D.: Shampooing can be made a pleasant incident of the toilet if you employ eggol for cleansing hair and scalp. Get a package of eggol from your druggist for a quarter (which is enough for a dozen shampoos) and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water; massage briskly as you pour a little at a time on the scalp. You will find shampooing with eggol soothes and invigorates the scalp and puts it in a healthy condition. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly and takes on a rich, even gloss and fluffiness. Occasional shampoos with eggol greatly benefit the hair-sacs and keep the scalp clean and healthy.

DEMOCRATS CAPTURE OHIO'S BIGGEST CITIES

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, Nov. 8.—Elections throughout Ohio yesterday in the main resulted in sweeping victories for the Democrats. Returns from 93 cities and towns show that the Democrats elected 43 mayors, Republicans elected 36 mayors, Socialists elected 9 mayors and Independents elected 5 mayors.

The old Republican organizations were routed in the three largest cities of the state, Dayton being the only city of any size to elect a Republican mayor.

In Toledo the former large pluralities of Mayor Brand Whitlock, Independent, were cut in two.

A feature of the election is that for the first time in Ohio many Socialist mayors will be inducted into office. Thus that party will have the mayors in Canton, Cuyahoga Falls, Salem, Lorain, Martins Ferry, St. Marys, Fostoria, Mt. Vernon, Lima and Toronto. Many minor offices throughout the state were also secured by the Socialists.

IN COLUMBUS.

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, Nov. 8.—The great Democratic landslide here yesterday which elected George J. Karb mayor over George M. Marshall by over 6000 plurality, failed to carry with it a council of the same faith as the new mayor. Council will stand 7 Democrats, 8 Republicans and 4 Socialists.

One of the surprises of the election was the heavy vote cast by the Socialists, over 10,000 voting that ticket.

Stuart Bolin, candidate for city solicitor, was the only other Democrat on the city ticket elected. The other five city offices went to the Republicans.

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Although George J. Karb, Democrat, was elected over Mayor Marshall, Republican, by a plurality of 5902, the Republicans succeeded in electing a majority of their city ticket. While Eby, Socialist, finished third, he carried three wards or two more than Marshall. Four Socialist councilmen were elected.

IN CLEVELAND.

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—Newton D. Baker, Democrat, by complete returns, gets a plurality of 17,300 votes in the mayoralty fight and sweeps the entire Democratic ticket into office with him. The victorious candidate declared that the result was a "monument to Tom L. Johnson," one of the strongest of the temper of the vote for constitutional delegate, was the defeat of James R. Garfield, former member of Roosevelt's cabinet by F. C. Malin, pledged progressive by 500 plurality.

Baker got 17,815 plurality. He received 46,190 to Fred G. Hogan, Republican, 28,375, while C. E. Ruthenberg, Socialist, got 8145.

The two million bond issue for a city electric light plant was approved.

AKRON REPUBLICAN.

(By Associated Press.)

Akron, O., Nov. 8.—Frank W. Rockwell, Republican, was elected mayor over Henry J. Cronan, Democrat, by a majority of 1722. The Democrats won the offices of city auditor, treasurer and police judge, the Republicans getting all the other offices. A. Ross Reed was elected delegate to the constitutional convention.

SOCIALIST AT CANTON.

(By Associated Press.)

Canton, O., Nov. 8.—Complete returns show that Henry Schilling, Socialist, was elected mayor of Canton yesterday over Arthur Turnbull, Democrat, by a majority of three votes. The returns are disputed and the official count Thursday will be necessary to determine the result.

With a total vote of 10,103, Schilling got 3413 to 3,410 for Turnbull. Dissatisfaction with the candidates of the two great parties is given as the reason for the result.

CHILLICOTHE CLOSE.

(By Associated Press.)

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 8.—The race for mayor of this city is so close that the official count will be necessary to determine who is the winner. On unofficial figure the Democrats claim the election of James A. Cahill, Democrat, over Latta Morrison, Republican, by 27 votes. This is disputed by Republicans who say there are enough disputed ballots to elect Morrison. The poll books and the ballots in dispute, have been sealed up by the board of elections and will not be opened until Thursday. Indications are that the final majority will not be over 10 either way with Cahill as the porbable winner.

The Democrats carried their entire ticket with the exception of city solicitor and two councilmen, who are Republicans.

IN TOLEDO.

(By Associated Press.)

Toledo, O., Nov. 8.—In the franchise fight with the Toledo Railway and Light Company Brand Whitlock, Independent, was re-elected by 3047. He will have the support of council by a close vote. The Socialists polled 5000 votes.

DAYTON REPUBLICAN.

(By United Press.)

Dayton, O., Nov. 8.—Edward Phillips becomes the first Republican mayor elected in Dayton in 25 years as a result of yesterday's voting. He has a plurality of 358 over John Ely, Democrat.

HUNT IS WINNER.

(By United Press.)

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 8.—Complete unofficial returns of yesterday's election show that Henry T. Hunt, Democrat, was elected mayor of Cincinnati.

Hunt received 43,672 votes and Louis M. Schwab, Republican, the present mayor, received 30,744.

With Hunt every man of the Democratic ticket was elected. Party division in council will be Democratic for the first time in 20 years.

The women of the city are rejoicing over the election of Miss Edith Campbell as member-at-large of the school board.

NEBRASKA REPUBLICAN

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 8.—Indications are that the Republicans have elected their entire state ticket in Nebraska. Superior Court Justices, University Regents and Railroad Commissioners were elected.

NEW MEXICO IS DEMOCRATIC

(By United Press.)

Sante Fe, N. M., Nov. 8.—Although the returns are far from complete the indications are that the Democrats have elected W. C. McDonald governor by a plurality of 2500, and that the entire Democratic state ticket is victorious. It is believed that one Democratic congressman has been elected but for the other seat the Republican is leading.

MAJORITY IN KENTUCKY GROWING

(By Associated Press.)

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—After four years of republican rule, Kentucky awoke this morning to find herself in Democratic hands, the candidates of that party having been swept into office in practically every county and city of the state. James B. McCreary, who was governor of the state 32 years ago, was elected governor yesterday again by a majority that will exceed 30,000. Every Democratic nominee on the state ticket is elected by as large a majority.

The city of Lexington voted to adopt the commission form of government two years hence.

NEW JERSEY IS LOST TO WILSON

(By United Press.)

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8—Despite the personal appeals of Governor Woodrow Wilson and his energetic campaigning for a Democratic legislature, the next general assembly will show a Republican majority of 19 members. The defeat of Wilson is regarded as especially significant in view of the fact that he is a potential presidential candidate and that he had exerted his best efforts to keep the state in the Democratic column in the last off year election before the presidential campaign. In the lower house the Republicans yesterday elected 39 members and the Democrats 21 and in the senate the Republicans got 5 to 3 for the Democrats.

Berger Predicts

(By United Press.)

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—Congressman Victor L. Berger predicted today that the Socialist will poll 2,000,000 in 1912, based on gains the party made yesterday.

Forgers Caught

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 8—Considerable importance is attached to the arrest of thre emen here yesterday. The men are alleged to have forged checks aggregating half a million dollars. The men are Charles Craleski, W. Schultzerberger and Isadore Weiss, and they are held without bail. They are alleged to be members of a gang who have defauded the banks all over the country by means of forged checks.

New Fixtures.

Henry Ruel has just installed handsome new fixtures in the cafe in the Washington Hotel.

DRYS TO CONTROL THE CONST. CONVENTION

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—The extent of the sweeping victory won by the progressives in the election of constitutional delegates is best shown by the fact that out of a total of 119 delegates elected, less than 25 are reactionaries. Between 60 and 100 are unqualified progressives, who were elected because they favored the initiative and referendum and other progressive measures.

A big majority of all the delegates are pledged in writing to work and vote for these principles. Herbert S. Bigelow, secretary of the Ohio Progressive League and for ten years a leader in the fight for the initiative and referendum today issued the foollowing statement: "The long fight for the initiative and referendum in Ohio has been won. The slush fund of big monopoly business will avail nothing in the convention. The enemies of popular government have met a crushing defeat.

"This is the greatest victory ever won for progressive government in any state in the union."

The indications now are that the drys will have a majority over the wets in the convention. The big counties with the exception of Franklin, will send wet delegates, but the drys more than made up for the loss in the small counties. While all delegates were elected on non-partisan ballots, it develops that the Democrats will have a big lead over the Republicans in membership. The Democrats have elected approximately 60 of the 119 delegates. The Republicans about 45, the Socialists and Independents about 8, with the remainder doubtful.

Despite the fact that Attorney General Hogan ruled that members of the legislature could not be members of the convention three members of the legislature were elected. They are Robert Crosser of Cleveland, Frank Woods of Medina, and W. B. Kilpatrick of Trumbull county, who will have to resign in the legislature before the convention meets.

The wet and dry fight is a weighty one. The fact that the drys have a majority of the delegates is important.

Among the delegates elected were the following well known men; President S. E. Fess of Antioch College, H. W. Elson of the Ohio University of Athens, Dr. C. I. Brown, superintendent of the schools at Findlay, George Knight professor of constitution at the Ohio State University.

Other notable members are Walter Brown of Toledo, state chairman of the Republican central committee; E. L. Latson, first lieutenant governor and James Halfhill of Lima, attorney for the Standard Oil Company. Four preachers are included in the list of delegates.

SOCIALISTS BIG VOTE

United Press.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 8.—One feature of yesterday's municipal election was the unprecedented strength developed in the state by Socialists. Six cities elected mayors from this party. They are Lima, Lorain, Martin's Ferry, Fostoria, Canton and Mt. Vernon. All were elected by safe pluralities over the old party with the possible exception of Canton.

TOBACCO CO. PLAN IS APPROVED BY COURT

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 8—The United States Circuit court handed down a decision here this afternoon approving the plan of reorganization of the American Tobacco Company, with minor modifications.

The decision is the culmination of the long litigation of the government against the American Tobacco Company and its subsidiary concerns, the government maintaining that they were violating the Sherman anti-trust law. The suit was instituted in 1907. It was alleged the corporations controlled 75 per cent of the tobacco trade, 80 per cent of the snuff, 90 per cent of licorice and 80 per cent of the tin foil trade.

Life Prisoner Has Escaped From Pen

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—William Russell, serving a life sentence from Huron county for murder in the second degree escaped from the penitentiary this afternoon. He was at work on a lumber pile outside the east wall of the prison when last seen.

Russell's escape makes the nineteenth escape under Warden Jones administration which began in May, 1909, and the third daylight escape in the last four weeks. Russell's absence was not noticed until 1 o'clock. Supt. Gorman of construction work, saw that he was not in the working gang and notified Warden Jones.

Russell is 37 years old, weighs 147 pounds and is 5 ft. 6 in. tall.

Mix Up In Coalton

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, Nov. 8.—The result of the board of education election at Coalition, Jackson county, may be thrown out by the secretary of state as a result of complaint that the election judges refused to issue ballots to voters. It is said that the candidates agreed among themselves that there should be no opposition and the judges declined to issue ballots during the day saying that there was no necessity for voting as all had agreed one the ticket. One man who wanted on the school board and who had been defeated for nomination, waited until one-half hour before the polls closed. He then rounded up 25 women rushed them to the polls where they voted. This elected him as a member of the board. The women wrote his name on the ballots. Now the defeated man is kicking.

Foss To Retire

(By United Press.)

Boston, Mass., Nov. 8.—Governor Foss today at the state house officially announced his retirement in political life at the end of his second term as governor. He said:

"I shall retire from public life at the end of my second term as chief executive of this state. I shall devote all my time after that to my private business. I do not intend to be a candidate for the presidency of the United States, senate or the house of representatives."

HARMON PREDICTING DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Basing his opinion upon the results of the election yesterday in Massachusetts, Kentucky and Ohio, and in other parts of the country where the Democrats were uniformly successful, Governor Judson Harmon today predicted a democratic landslide in the national election next year.

"The result pleased me very much," said the governor, "and I confidently predict that the results are but a forecast of what is going to happen next year. The elections yesterday were the strongest endorsement of the Democrats they have had in recent years. The signs of a national Democratic victory are everywhere apparent. Last year the people elected a Democratic national house. This year they elected Democratic state and city tickets. Next year the people will elect a Democratic national ticket including the presidency."

Governor Harmon was especially pleased at the victory of Henry T. Hunt, democrat, who was elected mayor of Cincinnati. The governor made a special trip to Cincinnati to vote for Hunt. Governor Harmon said that Hunt represented what he had fought for himself in Cincinnati for 25 years, and he rejoiced at his election.

TAMMANY WAS GIVEN BAD FRIGHT

(By United Press.)

New York, Nov. 8—Tammany Hall has not fully recovered from the fright it got last night when its county ticket scraped through by the narrowest majorities, with one exception, in the recent history of the organization, and its judicial ticket was snowed under and the state assembly went strongly Republican. The Republicans will be in complete control of the legislature. On joint ballot, they will have 119 and the Democrats 82.

In the last legislature the Republicans had 84 and the Democrats 117.

SHOE STRIKE IN CINCY

(By Associated Press.)

Cincinnati, Nov. 8—Eight of Cincinnati's largest shoe factories are closed today and several hundred employees are idle as the result of a strike of 13 inside seamers, who quit work, making it necessary to close the factories.

A disagreement over wages was the cause of the strike.

MARYLAND'S GOVERNOR IS REPUBLICAN

(By Associated Press.)

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Returns from Baltimore City and the state indicate that for the second time since the civil war Maryland has elected a Republican governor. Philip Goldsborough has carried Baltimore by 2,000 and the counties outside by about the same majority.

The constitutional amendment which was aimed to disfranchise the negroes, was decisively defeated.

Vanceburg Republican

Vanceburg, Nov. 8.—Fourteen precincts out of 17 in Lewis Co., gives O'Rear for governor 772 majority. For Kentucky senate Major Means has carried the county by 675 majority over T. F. Bagby, Dem., but Bagby is elected by over 100 in the district.

Reformer Ahead In Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Scenes of riotous demonstration in Philadelphia's magnificent city hall recalling the outbreak in the council chamber a few years ago when hangmen's nooses were waved before certain councilmen showed today that the reform wave that has swept over the Quaker City was of the militant order. It was caused by a report thrown upon a screen opposite the city hall that Blankenburg, Democratic Reform candidate for mayor was being counted out. A mob of several thousand supporters burst into the corridors of the building and stormed the doors leading into the office of Safety Director Clay yelling and hooting him. They were blocked in their purpose by police reserves. The mob finally landed outside, and the demonstration ended in a free-for-all fight. Scores of arrest were made. The counting out rumor was made when it was alleged that police were holding up the return. Indications now point to Blankenburg's election to about 3000 plurality.

REBELS ARE MARCHING ON PEKIN

(By United Press.)

Shanghai, China, Nov. 8—Yuan Shi Kai who several days proclaimed himself provisional president of China, has ceased in his efforts to make terms with the government is now reported to be marching on Pekin. It is expected that he will proclaim himself dictator upon the capitol upon his arrival. Revolutionists are conversing on the capital from every direction and its fall is considered only a question of days and possible of hours.

(By Associated Press.)

Pekin, China, Nov. 8.—The situation here is apparently unaltered tonight. The emperor and empress and other court officials are still at the winter place and do not intend to leave.

REPUBLICANS WIN AT NEW BOSTON

In the municipal election held Tuesday in Scioto county villages the New Boston contest was the most interesting where the Republican ticket headed by M. T. Stewart for mayor triumphed including the clerk, treasurer and council. The Democrats with Josiah Morgan ran second with 99 votes and the Socialist candidate Martin Hall a close up with 91.

At South Webster the Socialists "showed" strong by electing their candidate, J. F. Grant for mayor while the remainder of the offices were captured by the Republicans.

At Rarden the Republicans enjoyed a sort of a field day electing their candidate, J. N. Wamsley for mayor and defeating J. M. Kates for a fifth term. The Republicans also elected A. L. Reedy treasurer and three councilmen, while the Democrats re-elected J. M. Wikoff clerk and J. W. Newman marshal.

Mayor Geo. H. Davis, Rep., was again chosen to another term at Otway defeating his Democratic opponent, Watson, by a majority of seven. In Washington township the Republicans swept the platter clean. Here the Socialist vote was strong and a couple of candidates of that party came near beating their rivals.

The complete vote cast in the above precincts is given below in full:

TYNES WINS

WHAT THE MAYOR SAYS

"You may say for me that words cannot express my gratitude for the support given me by my friends. I shall never forget the people of Portsmouth for the high honor conferred upon me. I feel that I have made an honorable record to which I and my friends may point with pride. If I have been too lenient in the discharge of my duty it was because I always felt and advocated that the best way to reform was to temper justice with mercy. I have nothing but the best wishes for the incoming administration for I myself have always boosted the city. I take credit for many visible improvements. I have no censure for those who did not support me and so let us all work together for the common good and the success of the city, which should be our sole aim."

—HENRY CLAY SEARCY.

The above was the statement made by Mayor Searcy on Tuesday's result. He has accepted defeat gracefully and expects to retire from office on the first day of January, feeling that he has served the people well. The mayor was completely fatigued Tuesday from the loss of several nights of sleep. Throughout Tuesday night he was kept busy answering telephone calls and when morning broke there was a constant stream of people to his office in the Masonic Temple, some with tears in their eyes and broken voice, giving assurances of their warm friendship. The mayor at the end of his term expects to devote his entire time to his life insurance business which has been his calling for the past twenty years.

WHAT NEW MAYOR SAYS

I certainly am very much pleased that the voters in the town in which I have lived all my life, and in which I have all my interests and hopes, saw fit to honor me by electing me mayor of Portsmouth. I wish to thank all of my friends, irrespective of party or faction for the confidence they reposed in me, and I will endeavor to fill the office in a manner that will show this confidence was merited.

I will enter upon my office without having made pledges of any kind, and unhampered by any "influence." I will administer the office to the very best of my ability, and will do my duty, as I see it, under all circumstances.

—F. N. Tynes.

Democrats made splendid races and they are being warmly congratulated.

City Treasurer David E. Edwards was re-elected by 402 majority over Thomas Dellert, Democratic candidate.

For justice of the peace, John W. Byron, Democrat, and Daniel Shakespeare, Republican, were the successful candidates. Ben F. Harwood, Republican and F. T. Moreland, Democrat, being defeated.

For school board, George D. Scudder, Democrat; J. P. Purdum and Dr. E. C. Jackson, Republicans, were elected.

For constitutional delegate H. Frank Thompson, Democrat, was loser, that much was certain early, the race lying between A. T. Holcomb and N. W. Evans, Republican.

The Socialist vote on mayor was surprisingly large, Mr. Mooney receiving approximately 1200 votes in the city.

Along with the defeat of Mayor Searcy by Mr. Tynes comes the usual crop of speculation as to what caused the reversal of the sentiment that twice elected Searcy by large majorities and then defeated him by a small margin.

Some people think that the larger percentage of the Socialist vote came from the Democratic ranks and point to the big Socialist gains here and there. Analysis of the Socialist vote does not bear out this opinion. It apparently came from both the old parties, probably more from the Republicans than from the Democrats. Disaffected members of both parties, who did not want to vote for either Tynes or Searcey, satisfied their feelings by handing votes to Mooney, the Socialist candidate. The Times knows of Democrats, who had always been active and loyal heretofore, who were opposed to Mayor Searcy for one reason or another, who did not want to vote for Tynes and who voted for Mooney. The same is true of the Republicans. Many Dry Republicans, who felt that they could not support either Tynes or Searcy, voted the Socialist ticket.

Then, of course, there was the usual crop of sore spots which a party in power is bound to make—the disappointed office seekers, the grafters who were kicked out, the kickers on this and that and the other. Also there was some dissatisfaction with the police force, but all of these were minor incidents, discounted in the pre-election estimates. For the votes lost by these causes, votes were gained for the same reasons, and they about offset each other. The element of personal popularity of the candidates was another thing that could be counted upon to about offset each other.

Coming down to hard tacks, after sizing up the vote and studying it carefully, it is the opinion of The Times that the defeat of Mayor Searcy was due to concerted and organized effort on the part of a majority of workers of the so-called wet faction. You can go up and down the "causes" but you have got to come back to this one every time.

The writer is not a spring chicken in politics and it does not take more than one brick wall to fall upon him to let him know that something hit him.

Mr. Tynes got the Wet vote that certain leaders could swing to him quietly—and they did it very, very quietly—give them credit for that. The game was worked beautifully and with machine-like precision. Upon the surface these same wet gentlemen were neutral—many of them professed to be for Searcy, others for Tynes, but all were going to simply vote and "keep out of politics." They didn't do it. They secretly "got in" and they lined up solidly for Mr. Tynes. The Times does not believe that Mayor Searcy got enough votes from the ranks of the men actively engaged in the liquor business or who expect to engage in it, to count upon the fingers of one hand. And all of these men got their friends to go with them to the Republican band wagon.

As to whether or not this rush of the Wet vote to the Republican candidate for mayor was due to some agreement made prior to the local option election, The Times is not prepared to say. There are circumstances that would lead to this belief and some others that lead to the opposite belief. The fact remains that a big Wet vote went to Tynes, and that is all there is to it.

For example, take the district west of Chillicothe street, which went Wet by 700 at the local option election. Mayor Searcy carried this district by 276, two years ago and by over 300 four years ago. The district is normally Democratic by 250 to 300. Yet Tuesday Searcy came to Chillicothe street with 15 plurality over Tynes. What did it?

Again take the Slabtown A precinct, which was heavily Wet, and normally Democratic. On Tuesday it gave Searcy a bare plurality. Thus it went over the city, Searcy running well in dry districts and being slashed in most of the Wet districts.

In the minds of certain gentlemen, the result of Tuesday was as much of a Wet victory as was the local option election two weeks previous.

The full votes of the various candidates will be found in the tables printed elsewhere.

Basket Ball Game Thursday Evening

Thursday evening, instead of Friday, as has been announced, the First Presbyterian Basket Ball team will meet the Heal Athletic Club in the First church gymnasium. Other athletic events will enliven the evening. An admission of ten cents will be charged. Game will begin at 7:30.

The First Church gymnasium was opened for the first time this fall on Monday evening, with a large attendance and will be open three nights each week for boys and men and one evening for girls. Monday and Tuesday will be exclusively for men and boys, Thursday evenings (after this week) exclusively for girls, and Friday evenings there will be a general evening open to all, with special features of entertainment, including a basket ball game with outside teams. With the exceptional of occasional evenings, these Friday entertainments will be free to all, and it is planned to make them one of the social features of the church.

BAGBY WINS FOR SENATE

Thomas Bagby, of Garrison, Democratic candidate for senator of the Lewis-Mason district in Kentucky, and who was elected by a handsome majority, was in the city Wednesday receiving the congratulations of his many local friends.

The new senator is a brother of grocer Walter Bagby of this city. His own county, Lewis, was carried by his opponent, W. H. Means, of Maysville, by 1628. Mr. Bagby, however, captured Means' home county of Mason by 824. Bagby ran as an avowed "wet" man, while Means ran on a "dry" platform. Thomas Bertram, Republican, was elected representative of Lewis county without opposition.

Young White Goes To Prison For Life

Catlettsburg, Nov. 8—Everett White, who shot Charles Lowe about a year ago, and who was tried during this term of circuit court and given a life sentence by the jury, was sentenced by Judge Hulbert to 3 years at the Reform school before going to the penitentiary. White is but eighteen years of age, too young for the penitentiary, thus it is necessary that he be sent to the School of Reformation until 21 years old. If at the expiration of 3 years his conduct is satisfactory, he stands a chance for a pardon from the penitentiary.

White's Story

"Ninety-nine years in the pen is what cigarettes and whiskey have done for me.

"Boys, just stop and think. I am a boy, just eighteen years old, and have been sentenced to the penitentiary for the rest of my life for killing one of my boy friends while drunk.

"On the night of January second, 1911, me and two more boys got a basket of beer and two quarts of whiskey and went to a room in a hotel and stayed all night and drank the basket of beer and two quarts of whiskey. Next morning, about 4 o'clock, we went to a saloon and drank more and got another pint of liquor and went back to the hotel and drank it, and about nine o'clock I got on a street car and went to Huntington and visited several saloons and drank in all of them. I also bought another pint and came back to Catlettsburg. I was then nearly crazy from drink and not having slept any the night before or having eaten anything.

"I went to a club room where we boys would go and smoke cigarettes and read novels. This was late in the evening. In that club room is where I found that pistol. I put it in my pocket—it all seems like a dream to me. I left the room and they say I threatened to kill most everybody I came in contact with. I went to McCall and Fortune's drug store and there I met Charley Lowe, one of my boy friends, and they say I shot him down without saying a word. I cannot remember this at all. I did not have the least hard feeling against Charley Lowe and am sorry, sorry to my heart that this happened.

"The next thing I can remember, I was in jail and it was two or three days before I could realize what had happened, and then I could hardly believe it.

"I never had a chance that other boys had. My father died when I was five months old, and my mother died when I was but eight years old, and I was left a poor orphan baby in this cold, cold world, without the good advice of a father and the tender love and care of a dear mother.

"I have been in jail since January third, 1911, and was tried before a jury of twelve men October 6th and found guilty and sentenced to the pen for life. In my trial it was different from most cases. I had no mother, no brother, no sister, no friends to stand by me, excepting my lawyers, E. Poe Harris and Charles L. Williams, and the jailer, Sam Debord, who has been a friend to me, and it was through him that I secured one of my lawyers, C. L. Williams. Mr. Debord has talked to me every day and gave me good advice. He has been a brother to me.

"We have church most every Sunday and the Salvation Army comes once a week. I take a great interest in these meetings, as it is the first time in my short life I have attended church regularly.

"The only near relative that I have is my aged grandmother, and she is old and crippled. This will nearly kill her, if it don't, for she is not able to stand very much at the best.

"Now, I will soon bid you all goodbye—maybe forever, for the cold, cold bars of the penitentiary will soon close around me. Oh, just think—a boy 18 years old shut up for life.

"Boys, take warning from me and let cigarettes and whiskey and pistols and bad company alone, for they will sooner or later get you in bad.

"I want all the good people to pray for me—a poor orphan boy, alone in the world. Goodbye to all."

EVERETT WHITE.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will offset the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients, which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff, but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair and don't resort to old-time hair dyes. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

THE BIG OHIO CITIES ELECTED DEMOCRATS

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 8—The Democrats were swept into power in the largest cities of Ohio Tuesday. Columbus, Cincinnati and Cleveland swinging into the Democratic column by large pluralities. A feature of the elections throughout the state was the large Socialist vote. In Columbus Eby, the Socialist candidate for mayor ran a close race with Mayor Marshall, the Republican nominee, for second place, while Geo. J. Karb, Democrat, had been elected by from 4,000 to 6,0(8).

In Cincinnati Mayor Louis Schwab, was defeated by Henry T. Hunt, Democrat, by probably 6,000.

In Cleveland Newton D. Baker, Democrat, was elected mayor by probably 20,000 while practically the entire Democratic ticket is elected with him.

In Canton, Mayor Turnbull, Democratic liberal, whose was running for a fourth term, is apparently elected by a plurality of eight votes over Schilling, Socialist.

Youngstown elected F. A. Hartenstein, Republican, as mayor by 1,000 plurality.

In Toledo Brand Whitlock, Independent, was elected for a fourth term by a plurality in the neighborhood of 2,000.

HIS DINNER WAS ON FIRE

The boys of the East End fire department are having a laugh at the expense of Henry Brown, who, unconsciously, set fire to his own home about 12:30 Tuesday night. Brown was a judge at the election precinct. Coming home late, he concluded to appease his hunger with a self-cooked meal. He spread a generous steak in a well-greased skillet, put on a pot of coffee and lit the gas in the range. Then he heard a familiar voice on the street and stepped out to greet a friend. They talked and talked. The steak fried and fried, and the coffee boiled over, and still they talked. The charred steak turned to cinders, and the dry coffee grounds smoked like a charcoal pit. And still they talked. A flash and a blaze, and the partition and the ceiling caught fire. And still they talked.

Mrs. Brown awoke in her room up-stairs almost suffocated. She sprang up and groped her way through the smoke to the telephone and called the East End fire department, only four or five doors away. The boys responded with lightning rapidity. They didn't stop to crank up the auto, but made the rush on foot. Will Roberts, who hadn't stopped to put on all his clothes, was first at the pole with a chemical tank. As he rushed in at the gate Brown saw him, and mistaking him for a burglar, gave chase.

"Hey, stop there! What the blank do you want in there?"

"Henry Brown's house is afire!"

"The devil!"

In they rushed together, with the other boys at their heels. Brown is an ex-fireman, and he never fought flames more desperately in his life. It was a hard fight, but the boys won out. After it was over, there was a woman's voice coming from the stairway:

"Well, Hennery, I hope you'll have sense enough next time to call somebody who knows how to cook victuals without burning them!"

AGRICULTURE IN SCHOOLS

Lester S. Ivins, Lebanon, formerly professor of agriculture in Lebanon University, and now State Supervisor of Agriculture for this district, has been inspecting the schools in this county. Mr. Ivins addressed the county teachers in this city at their last association, and also held an institute for one day at Lucasville with the teachers of three townships present.

Mr. Ivins reports that the work in agriculture in the county is proving to be a very popular study with the pupils of the schools, and consequently an interesting subject for the teachers to teach. Many of the teachers find the subject the most interesting of any they have ever taught.

The new law requires agriculture to be taught in all schools outside of city districts. This includes both the high schools and the elementary schools. Teachers are also required to have the subject of Agriculture on their certificates by September 1st, 1912. Pupils desiring to take the examination in the spring under the Boxwell law will also be better prepared to pass by making a study of Agriculture. The teachers and pupils are to be congratulated upon the work they have done in Agriculture thus far, and the supervisor feels very hopeful that some work of unusual merit will be accomplished in Scioto county along the lines of public school agriculture in the future, although the work in most schools is just beginning.

Terrible Risk Run By Railroad Men

Washington, Nov. 8—It's 1 to 458 that a railroad man will be killed on his job, and 1 to 13 that he will be injured. The interstate commerce commission's report of railroad accidents during the twelve months ended on June 30, shows that ratio.

During that period 10,396 persons were killed and 150,159 were injured on the railroads of the United States. However, of the number killed only 356 were passengers, and more than one-half the total number killed were trespassing upon railroads or stealing rides on trains.

PORTSMOUTH. OIHO

GLOOM THICK AT CITY BUILDING

Exciting as were the scenes when the result of the election became known, there was no serious disorder over town, and not a single arrest was made Monday night.

Police made allowances for the spirit of the occasion and everybody was allowed to give full vent to his enthusiasm. The officers themselves were crest-fallen over the outcome of the election. Most of them had gathered at headquarters. When the returns began indicating Mayor Searcy's defeat, thick gloom prevailed about the place. Some few who had been overly confident asked to be relieved from duty and special policemen who had been serving for some weeks past took their places. All of the regulars voiced their willingness to quit the force the first of the year. The same spirit was manifested by the boys at the water works. While sorely disappointed, they accepted defeat gracefully and expressed themselves as ready to give up their places, but, as Supt. Earl Lawson put it, "We will remain at our posts until the whistle blows, anyway."

Safety Director James P. Brennan and a small crowd of party workers and friends held forth at Democratic headquarters all evening, receiving the returns. These brought little comfort, but Jimmy was still at the desk at midnight, analyzing the situation. Large crowds gathered in the vicinity of Second and Market streets, and the board of election rooms were thronged all evening by candidates, their friends and followers all eager for official returns.

The Washington hotel lobby also presented an animated scene, and many traveling men seemed actively interested in the result. They particularly clamored for news from the larger cities. The election of George Karb, as mayor of Columbus, seemed to meet the hearty approval of the visiting guests at the hotel.

The telegraph offices were among the busiest places in the city with news correspondents sending bulletins to the outside world and successful candidates wiring reports to relatives and interested friends. A feature that excited no little comment was the eagerness with which certain liquor leaders flocked to the telegraph offices to send out messages.

HAS ARMOR PLATE JAW

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 8—Jacob Tunick, of this city, got so angry when Jacob Standish, of Southington, refused him a drink last night at Standish's "speak easy" that he shot at the liquor seller. Standish stopped the bullet with his teeth and chased Tunick into the night. Tunick ran so fast Standish could not catch him, so the man with the armored face hunted up a hospital. The doctors found that the bullet had pierced his cheek and flattened against his teeth.

"If I'd kep' my mouth open, like some people," said Standish, "that bullet might have come out and smashed a bottle."

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND

FOR ALL COUGHS AND COLDS

FOR CHILDREN AND GROWN PERSONS

Most effective with Croup and Whooping Cough

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND is quick and reliable. It stops the cough by promptly healing the cause. Contains no opiates. Is indispensable in a family where there are children

ST. JOSEPH, MICH.

Mrs. Frank Marti, 417 Church St., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound saved the life of our baby boy. He contracted a severe bronchial trouble and coughed violently and had spells of choking and gagging and turned black in the face. I always had great faith in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and started giving it to the child. In a short time he was relieved and finally the cough was entirely stopped and the coughing and gagging spells ceased bothering him. He got well in a short time, gaining in weight and getting robust. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us trouble and this with the wonderful cure in baby's case shows its great merit. We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We always keep it in the house."

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

THEATRICAL

The Majestic

In offering the following list of vaudeville artists to its patrons for the last half, beginning Thursday matinee, the management of the Majestic feels confident that his clientelle will be more than pleased. The Girads, hand-balancers and equilibrists extraordinary have the honor of breaking more house records than any act of the self-same kind. One might say these acts are all similar. Very true in some cases, but not in this. You have seen the others, now see this one. The Girads are master gymnasts, that stand positively alone in the world of calisthenics and come to this theatre highly indorsed. Joe Kennedy, King of the little Wheels, will cut circles and grapevines for the edification of the lovers of roller skating. Mr. Kennedy, though young in years, is old in experience, having practically skated all his life, his work being described as "the poetry of motion and grace of movement," must be seen to be appreciated. Lynne Sisters, Harmony Singers and Dancers, are top liners on any bill. Enough cannot be said in favor of these gifted artists, who sing and dance in a way that will be a revelation to the patrons of the Majestic. The act is far above the average, being costumed and presented in a way that will be remembered a long time to come. Herbert Blythe & Co., presenting a meritorious skit called "Comedy Bits," that is sure to appeal to all lovers of real humor, come to this theatre under special engagement.

The Sun

After three days of drama Manager Lee again resumes vaudeville at the Sun theatre and for the last half of the week, beginning on Thursday matinee, one of the best vaudeville bills ever presented in Portsmouth, headed by the Wends Ladies Quintette, the first musical and singing acts ever playing this theatre, five beautiful young ladies, handsomely gowned playing all the popular and classics. Miss Blanch Irwin, character singer and change artist. Van & Hoffman, refined singing and talking act "The Dutchman and the Other Guy." It is to laugh. Another added feature is Tops-Topsy and Tops excentric dancing and singing introducing their wonderful dog Topsy with a human brain. Topsy works in the act same as a human being apparently with any question or signs.

The management in selecting his bills never forgets the children as he wants to please them as well as the older ones. Motion pictures of an instructive and a pleasing nature will be presented by the Sunscope.

MARY EMERSON TELLS OF CAREER ON STAGE

The Times man was fortunate enough to catch Miss Mary Emerson in the afternoon, there being no matinee, and as soon as he had said, how d'ye do, Miss Emerson reminded him that on her last appearance here, he had called and started the conversation with the same remark, which shows, said the Times man that you have a good memory. And, sitting down, he took out his pad and pencil.

There was quite a pause. "Well," finally came the question, spoken in the simple, full tone that has thrilled thousands with its depth and beauty, "what shall I tell you?"

"Something about yourself, something about your work. Where you were born, when you went on the stage, why you did it, how you like it, and any other little thing that I have overlooked."

"My, what a big contract! And do you expect to get all that in time to go to press today?" was the question.

The Times man said that he thought he did, so Miss Emerson said that she would do her best to tell him everything.

"I was born in Pennsylvania, not so very many years ago. I went to school there, but even in my earliest years I can remember that the stage had a fascination for me. I had two cousins about my own age whom I bullied to my heart's desire, persuading them to act in plays produced in my mother's back parlor, with the folding doors doing duty as the curtain, shawls and bedspreads for draperies. I wrote the plays and always insisted on playing the leading male roles. A little later my mother discovered that I had a singing voice, and I began my musical studies soon after. The first money that I ever earned was singing in my native town in church.

"Then we moved to Boston, so that I could have the advantage of better vocal instruction than my home town afforded. All went well until one day I sang a song from Gounod's opera of Romeo and Juliet. After I had finished, my teacher advised me to study for the drama. I had always leaned more to the dramatic stage, and it seems strange that my first success was Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, in my first professional season on the stage. It was a tremendous part for a mere girl, but I was not discharged after the performance was over, so I must have given satisfaction in it. It was after this performance, too, that the late Richard Mansfield sent for me, and with that great actor I remained for two seasons, playing many varied roles, as it was Mr. Mansfield's custom to appear in different plays, as I am doing now. After my two seasons came my first starring tour in His Majesty and the Maid, in which I have appeared so many times. Then, in succession followed Will O' the Wisp, On Parole and The Making of Maddalena, all successful, I am thankful to say. And now I am here again, playing, as did Mr. Mansfield, and as are doing Mr. Robert Mantell, Miss Grace George, and as did all of the older and great artists of the dramatic stage. Why should an actress be confined to one part each season? Isn't her work bound to become mechanical? Isn't the art of acting going to deteriorate under such conditions? You see, this appearing in different roles is vital to one's continued dramatic success. And so I have come to Portsmouth with some of my old successes, and some in which the best artists of our time have appeared. In this way, we are all benefited.

"You see, these dramatic masterpieces under the best of conditions, and I can show you myself in different guises. Now, I have talked about nothing and no one but myself, but you told me to. But, please, say to my Portsmouth friends that I am always glad to be here, that I've met with so much kindness from their hands that I always look forward to appearing before them."

And with a cordial good-bye, and a hearty shake of the hand, the Times man left the hotel.

INDIAN WHIPS WOODEN IMAGE

Chicago, Nov. 8—Joe Mexicana, a Sioux Indian, who has been viewing the sights along State street yesterday, believed that he had been insulted by a wooden Indian in front of a cigar store.

He crept around the block and came upon his opponent from the rear, leaped on his back and began to pummel him. When the fight was stopped by a policeman the wooden Indian and the Sioux were rolling on the sidewalk.

Joe and his companion, Big Bear, were shipped back to the Pine Ridge reservation in South Dakota last night.

MADE HIS OWN BIBLE

Gentry, Mo., Nov. 8—The Rev. D. M. Spencer, a blind minister of Gentry, has completed, after seven years' work a Bible printed with raised letters. Prior to starting work on the Bible he made a hymn book of the same character.

In making his Bible Mr. Spencer employed a girl to read to him while he set the type which he had manufactured. He did all the work on the book himself, and it is said to have cost more than one thousand dollars for its manufacture.

Mr. Spencer has preached in practically every state of the union. He once built a three-room house for himself unassisted and also homesteaded a claim in Nebraska, where he did his own work.

Judiciously Spent Money is That Put Into Homes

Because dollar for dollar we do not believe there is anything else on earth that brings the same pleasure as a home. And again, by investing right here in your home community you are dealing in values you understand and with people you know; hence the risk of loss is completely eliminated. What you don't know about lumber we are here to tell you and we may be able to help you avoid many of the mistakes that are frequently made in the selection of lumber unsuited for different purposes. Some lumber is O. K. for outside uses and not worth a cent for interior finish, and vice versa. We know just what is best for most purposes and have it in stock to show you. Drop in and let's talk it over.

Bull Durham Prizes Won In Ohio State

That the ball players throughout the country have something other than honor and glory, together with their weekly stipend to look forward to, is strongly emphasized in the annual report which has just been issued relative to the Bull Durham signs, which are located in the majority of the baseball parks in the United States.

In connection with these signs, there is an offer of $50 in cash to every player hitting the bull with a fairly batted fly ball, and a carton of Durham tobacco for every home run made in one of these parks. The bull signs have been hit 234 times this past season, which hits have enriched the fortunate men to the extent of $11,900. In the parks where the bulls are located, there have been 5322 home runs made, and as a result, the heavy hitters have received free tobacco to the extent of 19,449 pounds or 311,181 five-cent packages.

A special report of the work in the Ohio State league parks is given herewith:

Chillicothe—The bull sign was hit July 20, Frank Wolfe, Chillicothe; Aug. 22, Harry Hammond, Portsmouth. There were 42 home runs made during the season, which netted the heavy hitters 159 pounds of tobacco.

Lancaster—The bull sign was hit June 29, Robert B. Prysock, Piqua. There were 7 home runs made during the season, which netted the heavy hitters 31 1-2 pounds of tobacco.

Lima—The bull sign was not hit. There were 30 home runs made during the season, which netted the heavy hitters 135 pounds of tobacco.

Marion—The bull sign was not hit. There were 25 home runs made during the season, which netted teh heavy hitters 112 1-2 pounds of tobacco.

Portsmouth—The bull sign was hit May 21, John Weinberg, Portsmouth; June 25, Harry Hammond, Portsmouth; Aug. 21, Ed Conwell, Portsmouth; Aug. 26, Michael S. Whalen, Portsmouth. There were 7 home runs made during the season, which netted the heavy hitters 31 1-2 pounds of tobacco.

Springfield—The bull sign was not hit. There were 15 home runs made during the season, which netted the heavy hitters 67 1-2 pounds of tobacco.

League Totals.

The bull signs in the Ohio State league were hit 7 times, fattening the bank accounts of the lucky men to the extent of $350. There were 126 homers made in the league, as the result of which the players received 567 pounds, or 9072 five-cent packages of Bull Durham.

Owens Is Real Boss

Clarence (Brick) Owens, who will join the national league indicators next year, has had a great career in the American Association. Years ago he accidentally killed a man in Kansas City. Together with two friends, he was standing in a saloon one evening, when a man came in and told him he was going to shoot him. The barkeeper ordered the man out. Later, when Owens and his friends left the place, this man pounced on the umpire. Owens turned and struck him on the side of the head. He fell dead and Owens had a great deal of trouble over the affair.

The critics of the Chivington circuit say he'll make good with a vengeance in faster company. Owens is strictly the boss when he handles a game, but is usually popular with American association players, who likewise claim that he is the kingpin umpire in the minors. Big league scouts who have watched Owens are enthusiastic over his work and predict a brilliant future for the new official.

Being master of the situation is one of the strong points of this umpire. Here is an illustration:

Owens was umpiring an exhibition game between the White Sox and the Indianapolis team of the association. The game was being played on the Indianapolis grounds and the score was close. Harry Lord took a lead off first, dashed for second and was safe on a close play.

Wouldn't Change Decision.

At any rate, that was what Umpire Owens indicated when he spread his hand to give the safe sign. Up rushed the second baseman of the Indianapolis team.

"He wasn't safe," howled the second sacker.

Umpire Owens paid no attention. Every man has the right to kick when the play goes against him.

"He wasn't safe," bawled the Indianapolis baseman. "I had him this far," and the player indicated that he caught Lord a foot off the bag. One kick is all right. Two kicks are all wrong according to the philosophy of this umpire, Owens.

"Well, what are you telling me about it for?" he inquired, and his voice was as gentle as if he were discussing the weather. "Do you expect me to change my decision?"

Whereupon the player collapsed. What else was there for him to say?

This Owens is blessed with a great voice—for an umpire. An opera singer might tell you that it was a bit harsh, although he would find no fault with the volume. It's a fine outdoor voice. And he certainly is the boss when he is on the field.

Also Some Kidder.

He was once upon a time umpiring a game in the association, and it was a close battle. One of the pitchers possessed everything except control. This pitcher was unwilling to believe that he did not have that and every ball and strike was questioned. Finally when the game was getting toward the finish and the twirler was getting 'em near the plate, but not over, he rushed to the umpire.

"Say, you," he bawled.

"Now, don't create a disturbance," advised Owens in that gentle voice of his.

"Say, you, I have been pitching strike after strike and you haven't given me the benefit of it. I don't want to [illegible] that ball. If you could only [illegible] when they go over the corners I would!"—

"Now let us have no misunderstanding," said Owens, and there was not even the trace of anger or impatience in his voice. "I have a friend who will do you a lot of good. Here," and he handed the pitcher a card. It bore the name and address of one of the best-known oculists in the circuit.

FOOTBALL POETRY

A wild cheer swings across the field—
a tumult rends the air;
An answering shout comes rolling back
—ten thousand streamers flare;
An interval of parley—then the whistle
shrieks aloud,
The kick-off booms—and then a hush
descends upon the crowd.

A maid is sitting in the stands—the half back's heart beats high;
He sees her wave a dark blue flag against a dark blue sky;
The fight is on—the combat grows—
the battle moves along
And every time he takes the ball they sing a college song.

And then, just at the battle's close,
there comes the same old dream—
The same old dream that each has known who made his college team;
For ninety yards he darts and bucks and dodges till at last
He falls across the line and then—he knows the dream has passed.

The picture fades—his pipe is out—he rubs a half-closed eye
And turns again to calculus and logic
with a sigh;
But Martial's epigrams are dull and
Homer's lore is frayed
Against the season's greatest run—the run he never made.

—Grantland Rice.

Wants Portsmouth In Bowling League

The following is taken from the Reminder, a sporting publication of Cincinnati:

What about organizing an Ohio State or Tri-State Bowling League? This would seem to be just the thing to boost the bowling game. Plan the league along the lines of a baseball organization. A half dozen cities near Cincinnati could be interested in the proposition, and the expense of traveling would not be very great. If strictly an Ohio State league, Hamilton, Dayton, Portsmouth, Middletown and one other town close to Cincinnati could be interested, and if a Tri-State league would be the better proposition, teams from Lexington or Louisville and either Aurora or Lawrenceburg could be secured.

New York has a State league, and it has proven a bigger boom to the game than the National tournament. Syracuse, Albany, Amsterdam, Rochester, Utica, Auburn, Buffalo and Elmira compose the league. Each city has its own following, and the race for the championship cup arouses as much interest during the winter months as a baseball league.

Games are rolled four nights a week—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Each team meets the other 16 times, 8 at home and 8 away from home. The season will open December 19 and close March 22.

BIG TRIO IN VAUDEVILLE

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 8—Cy Morgan, Jack Coombs and Big Chief Bender, pitchers of the world-champion Athletics, opened their vaudeville engagement here today in an act which was unanimously voted as being the best ever staged by baseball players. They are supported by Kathryn Pearl and Violet Pearl, two clever young women, who also scored individual hits in the production.

The baseball players surprised the throng of spectators. Morgan's singing was the big feature of the act, while Coombs and Bender showed stage ability which was strong enough to carry the act without their added prestige as baseball players. The men have an excellent baseball sketch, replete with bright jokes.

Kidney Troubles Attack Portsmouth Men and Women, Old and Young

Kidney ills seize young and old,
Come quickly, with little warning.
Children suffer in their early years—
Can't control the kidney secretions.
Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.
Women worry, can't do daily work.
Men have lame and aching backs.
The cure for man, woman or child
Is to cure the cause—the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for sick kidneys—
Have brought relief to Portsmouth people.
Portsmouth testimony proves it.

Walter Drennan, 1010 Findlay street, Portsmouth, Ohio, says: "All I said in 1906, when I lived in Manchester, praising Doan's Kidney Pills, still holds good. I gladly repeat it now. My kidneys were inactive and there were bad backaches until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. This valuable medicine gave me speedy and complete relief."

FOSS HAS WON AGAIN IN MASSACHUSETTS

Boston, Nov. 8—The Democrats won in the state election and kept Massachusetts in the party column by continuing Governor Eugene N. Foss in office for the second term.

The returns gave Foss, Dem., 209,622; Frothingham, Rep., 202,888. Last year the same districts gave Foss, Dem., 201,321; Draper, Rep., 167,497. Luce, Rep., was elected Lieutenant Governor over Walsh, Dem., by 6,750 plurality.

The margin of victory was the narrowest in years, and for hours after the close of the polls the result hung in the balance. Republicans refused to concede the defeat of Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Frothingham as late as midnight, and at that time it was intimated that a state-wide recount might be necessary.

In the campaign speeches Republican orators urged Frothingham's election on the ground that the National Administration should be supported in its tariff policy and that a Democratic victory would mean a blow to the textile industries of the state.

Governor Foss placed his record before the people and asked for support.

It was expected because of an off year, the total vote would fall off considerably, but the average was well maintained.

The make-up of the remainder of the state ticket was still in doubt at midnight, although both branches of the Legislature was apparently Republican.

Governor Foss issued the following statement:

"The people have won their second great victory over machine rule in spite of the most scandalous boodle campaign ever waged in this state.

"Massachusetts has spoken unmistakably for an honest revision of the tariff and for a business administration of the commonwealth.

"The national significance of this election is inestimable; the rest of the country will follow the lead of Massachusetts."

RED

It's the Red Blood Corpuscles that Proper Food Makes.

An Ohio woman says Grape-Nuts food gave her good red blood and restored the roses of youth to a complexion that had been muddy and blotchy. She says:

"For 10 years I had stomach trouble, which produced a breaking out on my face. The doctors gave it a long Latin name, but their medicines failed to cure it. Along with this I had frequent headaches, nervousness and usually pain in my stomach after meals.

"I got disgusted with the drugs, stopped them and coffee off short, and quit eating everything but fruit and Grape-Nuts, with Postum for my table beverage.

"The headaches, stomach trouble and nervous weakness disappeared almost like magic, which showed that when the cause was removed and good food and drink used, nature was ready to help.

My blood was purified and my complexion became like a young girl's, while my weight was increased from 90 to 120 pounds in a few months—good, solid firm flesh, where it used to be soft and flabby.

"I recommended Grape-Nuts and Postum to one of my friends, who was afflicted as I had been. She followed my advice and in a short time was restored to complete health and in about 8 months her weight increased from 100 to 148 pounds.

"Our doctor, observing the effect of Grape-Nuts and Postum in our cases, declared, the other day, that he would hereafter prescribe these food products for gastritis." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

ORDINANCE.

NUMBER 1500.

To re-assess a special tax upon real estate abounding and abutting upon Sixth street from Union street to Offnere street.

Whereas, the assessments prescribed in a certain ordinance No. 1438 passed October 6, 1909, on the real estate abutting on Sixth street from Union street to Offnere street were based upon a frontage thereon, and

Whereas, the courts of the state of Ohio have since declared assessments so made and determined to be illegal, and

Whereas, it has become necessary to make a re-assessment thereon for the improvement of said street, therefore,

Be it ordained by the council of the city of Portsmouth, state of Ohio, as follows:

Section 1. That there be levied and assessed upon each front foot of the lots and lands abounding and abutting upon Sixth street from Union street to Offnere street, a plat of said property as assessed having been approved by council, and now on file in the office of the director of public service, the cash sum of two dollars, eighty-one cents, no mills and nine hundred eighth thousandths of one mill ($2.810068), and if paid in ten yearly installments the sums hereinafter named specified, to-wit:

1910—Thirty-nine cents, three mills and five hundred twenty-six thousandths of one mill $0.393525
1911—Thirty-eight cents, two mills and two hundred eighty-three thousandths of one mill $0.382283
1912—Thirty-seven cents, one mill and thirty-nine thousandths of one mill..$0.371039
1913—Thirty-five cents, nine mills and seven hundred ninety-six thousandths of one mill $0.359796
1914—Thirty-four cents, eight mills and five hundred fifty-two thousandths of one mill $0.348552
1915—Thirty-three cents, seven mills and three hundred eighth thousandths of one mill $0.337308
1916—Thirty-two cents, six mills and sixty-five hundredths of one mill $0.326065
1917—Thirty-one cents, four mills and eight hundred twenty-one thousandths of one mill $0.314821
1918—Thirty cents, three mills and five hundred seventy-eight thousandths of one mill $0.303578
1919—Twenty-nine cents, two mills and three hundred thirty-four thousandths of one mill $0.292334

To pay ninety-eight (98) per cent of the cost and expense, less the cost of intersections, of improving Sixth street from Union street to Offnere street, together with interest on bonds issued to pay ninety-eight per cent of the cost of said improvement, as the cost of intersections.

Sec. 2. That the total assessment against each lot or parcel of land shall be payable in cash within thirty days after the passage of this ordinance, or in ten annual installments, less those installments already paid, with interest on deferred payments at the rate of four (4) per cent per annum at the option of the owner. All cash payments shall be made to the city treasurer. All unpaid installments of assessment shall be certified by the clerk of council to the county auditor on or before the second Monday in September, annually, to be by him placed upon the tax duplicate and collected as other taxes are collected.

Sec. 3. That said annual assessments and all portions thereof shall be paid into the sinking fund when collected and shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest thereon as the same shall become due, and to no other purpose whatsoever.

Sec. 4. That the amounts paid on assessments so made by said ordinance No. 1438 on lots in excess of the assessments herein prescribed be, and the same are hereby refunded, and the same shall be credited on the next immediate installment or installments yet unpaid, and shall be collected in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance; and that the assessments on all lots herein assessed in excess of those assessments thereon, made and levied by said ordinance No. 1438 be added to the next installment due thereon and the same collected according to law.

Sec. 5. That ordinance No. 1438, passed October 6, 1909, entitled "An Ordinance to Assess a Special Tax upon Real Estate Abounding and Abutting upon Sixth Street from Union Street to Offnere Street" be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

ADAM PFAU,
President.

Passed November 1, 1911.
Attest: WM. N. GABLEMAN, Clerk.

RESULTS IN JACKSON CO.

Jackson, Ohio, Nov. 8—George Wheldon, Republican, was elected mayor of this city at yesterday's municipal election over John F. Clark, the present Democratic mayor. Wheldon received 530 votes and Clark, 165. Fair, the Socialist candidate, polled 65 votes.

At Wellston the Republican candidate, Nixon, was elected mayor by a majority of 250 votes over the Democratic candidate, William H. Doody.

Frank Lambert, a dry Democrat, of Wellston, was elected a delegate to the constitutional convention.

GOVERN BY COMMISSION

(By Associated Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8.—The commission form of government won in at least two cities west of the Missouri, namely, Chanute and Manhattan, Kansas. In both towns the proposition was carried in every precinct, and today 154 cities are under the commission form of government.

At The Biggs Shop.

Jack Hagar has taken a position as barber at the Biggs House shop.

Rents Flat.

E. E. Johnson, chief clerk of the B. & O. S.-W., has rented the upstairs flat of the newly remodeled Gharky property on West Fourth street.
